Rules:

1. Gilt Eligibility: Registered or grade replacement gilts are eligible projects. If an exhibitor declares that the gilt is registered, the registration papers must be signed off and submitted to the Livestock Office before the gilt will be allowed to sell. The age limit for a gilt is a minimum of 9 months and a maximum of 15 months on the opening day of fair. Gilts must weigh a minimum of 200 pounds at the weigh-in during the fair and must be bred. These requirements will be verified at the scale by the certified weigh master, the attending veterinarian and fair management. Those gilts that do not meet criteria will be disqualified from show competition.

2. Ownership Requirements and Project Agreement: The project members must have ownership of their animal no later than 60 days before fair (for the 2014 Fair).

3. Substitutions: If a breeding or health problem should occur, as evidenced by a veterinarian, a substitute female may be allowed if owned by the member on or before the 60 day ownership requirement.

4. Breeding and Project Management: Gilt must be bred, and must be far enough along in the pregnancy to be detected by ultrasound (30 days pregnant), and the gilt must not farrow during fair. Gilt will be preg-checked via ultrasound on weigh day at the Fair by a veterinarian specified by Fair Management. Gilts that are not bred will be disqualified from show competition.

5. Health: At the start of the project, members should seek advice from a local veterinarian about preventing diseases. The following diseases must be tested for Erysipelas, Parvovirus, Porcine Reproductive and Reparatory Syndrome (PRRS). The test results must be turned into the Livestock Office prior to weigh-ins. The following are recommended tests Brucellosis, E. Coli, Swine Flu. It is also recommended that the gilts be stress tested. The stress test is not required, but may help the market the gilt to potential buyers. All State and local rules apply.

6. Judging: The Danish System of Judging will be used at the Fair. A Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion will be selected by the judges. Females awarded blue ribbons in show competition will qualify for the Replacement Sale held during the Fair. Females that qualify for the sale are required to sell. The entry fees will be used to offset vet costs affiliated with vet inspections of the gilts. The Grand and Reserve Champion females must sell.

7. Replacement Animals Sale: An exhibitor may not show or sell more than one animal at the Fair per year. Only those gilts placing in the top two groups will be eligible to sell. The gilt must not farrow at the fair, as proper facilities will not be available to accommodate a farrowing gilt.

 A replacement gilt will take the place of a market hog, you may only sell one animal in the Junior Livestock Auction.
